

	Stearns
	3 rd	4 th	5 th
Sept 9: 1. “What Happened in History?” or Grand Theories in Search of Reality	xxiii–xxix 2–27	xxv–xvii 2–25	xxii–xxv 2–25
2. From Egalitarian to Patriarchal Society: Agriculture and the Origins of Civilization	28–38	26–36	26–35
Sept 16: 3. The Two Lands of the Nile and the Origins of One God	38–44 47–49	36–41 46–47	35–40 42–45
Sept 23: 4. The Hebrews and Their Covenant with God	45–46	43–45	45
Sept 30: 5. Buddhism: Extinguishing the Flame of Desire	179–182	133–135	125–127
Oct 7: 6. Nomads: Sophisticated Cultures on the Move	74–99	208–211	195–197
Oct 14: 7. Confucianism: The Leader as Role Model	61–73 100–123	58–99	74–93
Oct 21: 1. Ancient Athens: Intellectual, Artistic, and Commercial Achievement	124–142	100–110	94–109
Oct 28: 2. Alexander the Great and the Legacy of Hellenism	142–149 183	110–123 135–136	109–115 127
Nov 4: 3. God Dreaming: The Origins and Early Development of Hindu Culture	50–61 170–179 183–195	48–58 124–133 136–147	46–55 116–125 127–139
Nov 18: 4. Bread and Circuses: The Rise and Fall of the Roman Republic	150–166 168–169 236–238	150–163 165–167 211–214	140–154 155–157 [195–200] (Some revisions here)
Dec 2: 5. The Origins of Christianity and the Early Empire	166–168	163–165	154–157
Dec 9: 6. The Dead Sea Scrolls in Relation to Judaism and Christianity	No readings in Stearns
Dec 16: 1. Africa: Kingdom of Kush and Civilization of the Bow	222–235	194–208	182–195

2. Core Cultures of the Pacific Rim: Japan and North and South America	196–206	168–177	158–166
---	---------	---------	---------