The Aton Hymn

When thou settest in the western horizon,
The land is in darkness like death ...
Every lion comes forth from his den;
All creeping things, they sting.
At daybreak, when thou arisest in the horizon ...
Thou drivest away the darkness ...
Men awake and stand upon their feet ...
All the world, they do their labor.
How manifold are they works!
They are hidden from man's sight.
O sole god, like who there is no other,
Thou hast made the earth according to thy desire.

Psalm 104

Thou makest darkness and it is night,
Wherein all the beasts of the forest
creep forth.
The young lions roar after their prey.
The sun ariseth, they get them away ...
Man goeth forth unto his work,
And to his labor until the evening.
O Jahweh, how manifold are they works!
In wisdom has thou made them all;
The earth is full of thy riches.

Hymn to Amen-Re

The sweetness of thee is in the northern sky.
The beauty of thee carries away hearts;
The love of thee makes arms languid;
Thy beautiful form relaxes the hands;
And hearts are forgetful at the sight of thee.
Thou art the sole one, who made what is,
The solitary sole [one], who made what exists,
From whose eyes mankind came forth,
And upon whose mouth the gods came into being
He who made herbage [for] the cattle,
And the fruit tree for mankind,
Who made that (on which) the fish in the river may live,
And the birds soaring in the sky.
He who gives breath to that which is in the egg,
Gives life to the son of the slug,
And makes that on which gnats may live,
And worms and flies in like manner;
Who supplies the needs of the mice in their holes,
And gives life to flying things in every tree.
Hail to thee, who did all this!
Solitary sole one, with many hands.
